

Press Release

April 11, 2008

For Immediate Publication:

Selling History Seminar Scheduled

Plainfield, IL -- On Wednesday, April 30, 2008, from 7:00 to 9:15 p.m., at the Village Hall, a seminar on "Selling History" will be sponsored by the Plainfield Historic Preservation Commission. Designed to assist local realtors and private property owners concerned with marketing historic properties, the seminar is an introduction to the history and architectural styles of the region. Additionally, local, state, and national incentives that apply to historic properties will be discussed.

Michael Lambert of Arris Architects and Chair of the Plainfield Historic Preservation Commission will be speaking on regional architectural styles and identifying elements. Preservation staff from the communities of Aurora, Joliet, and Plainfield will discuss local and other preservation incentives. Realtor Stephenie Todd of ReMax Town & Country will share her experiences with marketing historic properties.

The workshop will be held at the Plainfield Village Hall, 24401 W. Lockport Street, and is free of charge. However, seating is limited and advance registration is suggested. Please contact Sara Javoronok in the Village Planning Division at (815) 439-2824 for more information or to register.