

Selling History

A one evening introduction to regional history and architectural styles designed to assist local realtors in marketing historic properties. Learn from realtors specializing in historic properties, preservation staff, and local historians.

Village of Plainfield

Historic Preservation Commission

Rescheduled from January 31, 2008 to April 30, 2008, 7-9:15 p.m.

Village Hall, Community Room A

24401 W. Lockport Street, Plainfield

Schedule

- 6:45 – 7:00 Registration
- 7:00 – 7:15 Welcome and opening remarks
- 7:15 – 7:45 Deciphering the “Queen Anne, Cape Cod, Bungalow, Colonial Ranch”
An Introduction to regional architectural styles and identifying elements
Michael Lambert, Principal Architect—Arris Architects + Planners, P.C., Plainfield HPC Chair
- 7:45 – 8:30 Local and other preservation incentives panel presentation
Jennifer Grobe—Preservation Planning Specialist, City of Aurora
Barbara Newberg—Planner/Commission Secretary, City of Joliet
Sara Javoronok—Planner I, Village of Plainfield
- 8:30 – 9:15 Realtor experiences with marketing historic properties
Stephenie Todd-REMAX Town &Country, former Oswego HPC Chair, Aurora

---

The workshop is free of charge. Seating is limited. Advance registration is suggested. Please return your registration information by April 25, 2008 to the Village of Plainfield, Community Development Department, 24401 W. Lockport Street, Plainfield, IL 60544 or fax to 815.436.9785. Contact Sara Javoronok at 815.439.2824 or sjavoronok@goplainfield.com if you have questions.

Name _____

Organization/Affiliation _____

Address _____

Phone _____

E-mail _____