Armed Robbery

Plainfield, IL – On Tuesday, February 2, 2010 at 8:39 p.m., the Plainfield Police Department responded to an armed robbery call at the Sprint store, located at 13327 Route 59.

The store employees advised two offenders entered the store and demanded cellular telephones. One offender placed a handgun to an employees head and demanded phones. The other offender sprayed another employee in the face with pepper spray. The subjects ordered both employees to lie on the ground as they removed phones. The offenders fled the store on foot and were last seen entering a dark green sedan.

The first offender is described as a male, African American, approximately 20 years of age, approximately 6'2", 200 pounds. The offender wore a black hooded sweatshirt, black pants, white shoes and black gloves. The offender had a multi-colored duffle bag slung over the shoulder and was armed with a handgun.

The second offender is described as a male, African American, approximately 20 years of age, approximately 6'2", 150 pounds. The offender wore a black jacket, blue jeans, black shoes and a black bandanna covering the face. The offender was armed with pepper spray.

Anyone having any information please contact Detective Dino Dabezic at 815-439-7652 or Detective Sergeant Troy Kivisto at 815-439-7658.
