TRIAD April Program

Plainfield, IL – The next meeting of the Plainfield TRIAD will take place on Tuesday, April 27th, 11 a.m. at the Cedarlake Retirement Village located at 14800 S. Van Dyke Road in Plainfield. This program is free and open to the public.

The April program is entitled:

THE ELDER CARE JOURNEY and LONGEVITY PLANNING

This presentation describes the journey that we embark upon as we become "seniors" from the Healthy Vigorous senior living at home to the Fragile senior in need of full time care. The focus is on the confusion and misconceptions about who will pay for care during this journey.

We will then discuss Longevity Planning. You will learn how ineffective traditional estate planning may be when a family is hit by the "wrecking ball" of a long term illness or care issue. Included is information on "Alzheimer's Planning, Parkinson's Planning," and some little known Veteran's Benefits that may be available to help pay the costs of long term care.

Our presenter is Rick Niksic. Rick is the Director of Education and Outreach for Law Elder Law of Aurora, Illinois. Rick has spoken on these topics to the public and professionals locally and nationally including recent engagements for Financial Advisors and Elder Law attorneys in Chicago, Kansas City, and Las Vegas.

Law Elder Law is the largest Elder Law firm in Illinois serving seniors and those who love them throughout Northern Illinois.
