Commander Kevin Greco Graduates From FBI National Academy

Plainfield Police Commander Kevin Greco recently graduated from the prestigious FBI National Academy, 240th Session, in Quantico, VA. Commander Greco has been with the Plainfield Police Department since 1989 and currently heads the Administration Division.

The FBI National Academy is internationally known for its academic excellence. The National Academy Program offers 10 weeks of advanced investigative, management, and fitness training. National Academy students earn undergraduate and graduate credits from the University of Virginia. Police Officers are selected to attend the National Academy who have proven records as professionals within their agencies. Training, transportation reimbursement, and accommodations for the National Academy are provided by the FBI.

Commander Greco joined 253 other graduating law enforcement officers. The 240th Session of the National Academy consisted of men and women from all fifty states. Included in the class were members of law enforcement agencies from local, county and state agencies, the District of Columbia, 22 international countries, four military organizations, and four federal organizations.

In addition to required coursework, Commander Greco completed eight fitness events including a 6.5-mile run/obstacle course and a 34-mile swim challenge.
