Plainfield, IL – On Wednesday, 03/30/11, Officers from the Plainfield Police Department conducted an alcohol compliance check of thirty-nine businesses, licensed to sell alcohol, in the Village of Plainfield. The Officers utilized two eighteen year old adults to enter the businesses and attempt to purchase alcohol. The eighteen year olds were instructed to present their own Illinois driver's license/identification to the businesses upon request. The transactions were witnessed by the Officers. The following businesses sold alcohol to the eighteen year olds:

- La Fiesta Mexicana, 24136 W. Lockport Street
- Sapporo Steak and Seafood, 16108 S. Route 59
- Tap House Bar and Grill, 24402 W. Lockport Street
- T-Birds Liquor, 15420 S. Route 59
- Back Door Pub, 15014 S. Des Plaines Street
- Bin 48, 24205 W. Lockport Street
- Salentino's Restaurant, 15420 S. Route 59
- Luigi's Pizza and Pasta, 16200 S. Lincoln Highway
- Sushi Noodle, 12736 S. Route 59
- Nick's Cozy Corner, 12337 S. Route 59
- Route 30 Liquors, 14210 S. Route 30

The employee(s) from each business that sold alcohol to the eighteen year olds were issued a $250.00 Administrative Citation.

Anyone needing additional information regarding the alcohol compliance check should contact Detective Sergeant Kevin McQuaid (815) 267-7209.
