Armed Robbery

Plainfield, IL – On Sunday, April 17, 2011 at 11:42 p.m., the Plainfield Police Department responded to Cici's Pizza, located at 11830 S. Route 59, in reference to an Armed Robbery.

Upon the arrival of the Plainfield Police, the restaurant employee advised two offenders approached the employee as the employee was leaving. One of the offenders displayed a black handgun. The offenders forced the employee back inside the restaurant and demanded the employee open the safe. After the safe was opened, the offenders fled the scene through the rear exit door with approximately $2,000 located inside a bank deposit envelope.

The offenders were described as the following:

- Offender #1: Male, black, approximately 6'02", 215 pounds. Wearing a black hooded type jacket with a red bandana covering his face.
- Offender #2: Male, black, approximately 5'10" to 6'00", 200 pounds. Wearing a black hooded type jacket with a red bandana covering his face

Anyone having additional information please contact Detective Colin Mulacek at (815) 439-7654 or Detective Sergeant Kevin McQuaid (815) 267-7209.
