Plainfield Police to Participate in Route 59 Enforcement Blitz

Plainfield IL – The Plainfield Police Department will be participating in an enforcement campaign along the Route 59 corridor on May 9th. This enforcement campaign is sponsored by the Naperville Police Department and will include numerous other jurisdictions from Will County in the south to Lake County in the north.

During this campaign, Plainfield Police Officers will focus a large amount of their efforts on occupant restraint violations, and will take a “zero tolerance” approach. Anyone stopped for failing to buckle up can expect a citation. In addition, all other traffic laws will be enforced. Avoid a costly citation; obey the speed limit, buckle up, and do not drive distracted.
